He was hauled, or, in other words, Pat persuaded an old bon-tailed ox to haul a two-wheeled cart from the railgoad dump he was working on in Illinois to the new El Dorado. Arriving at Gregory Gulch, a man who was sick of the country traded Pat a hole in the ground for Pat's ox and cart, and turned the old bon-tailed ox about, bound for the States. Pat went to work in the hole—called it the "Bob-tailed Lode," out of consideration for the faithful ox. An Unnatural Son Hires a Colored Man to Commit an Awful Crime.

HAD HIS FATHER KILLED.

COLUMBUS, S. C., May 28.-A few days ago, as Joseph James, living near Timmonsville, Darlington county, was sitting at his supper table with his only son, a gun was fired through a window and a load of buckshot entered his side, killing him instantly. The coroner held an inquest, but there was no evidence pointing Young James is the murdered man's sole beir. His father possessed considerable land and money, and did a small banking business, but he was something of a miser, lived in very or-dinary style, and held his son, who was twenty-five years old, in check.

A few days after the murder there was a gen-eral suspicion that the assassin had been hired to sommit the deed by some one interested in James's death, and the finger of suspicion was pointed at his son. The young man was highly incensed, and went to Darlington to have his accusers indicted for slander, but while in town he was arrested and is now in jail.

Two negroes, Louis Williams and William Scott, were also arrested. They swear that young James offered them $500 each to kill his father, but that they refused to do it, and that Robert Arthur, colored, accepted the offer and committed the crime. He was told where to find a revolver, and he got it and fired.

Arthur has, up to this time, escaped arrest, but a large reward has been offered for his capture, and he will not escape. A public meeting will be held in Darlington to form plans to push the case to the end.

SAFETY OF STANLEY.

A Letter Stating that the Explorer and His Party Are Alive and Well.

LONDON, May 28.-A letter was received today from Major Barttelol, dated at Zanzibar, Oct. 28. He states that some deserters from Stanley's camp reached Singatine after a twenty-days' journey, and reported that Stanley and his party were alive and well. They were at that time well supplied with food and clothing, and in no danger of immediate attack. The deserters could give no news about Stanley's proposed route.

Murdered with a Hammer.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., May 28 -Two young men on their way to work here this morning, discovered the body of Henry Whitehouse, aged twenty-two, an employe of the electric-light works, lying on Noble's island shore. The body was terribly disfigured, the throat was cut from ear to ear, and the head contained ten or twelve wounds, inflicted with some blunt instrument. A machinist's hammer was found near the body. Whitehouse had been paying attention to a young lady in Kittery, and had left her house shortly after 11 o'clock last night and was due at the electric station at 12. It is supposed that Whitehouse was killed on the highway near the railroad track and dragged to the shore. A trail of blood leading from the track was discernible. Superintendent Palmer, of the electric-light company, when shown the hammer, exclaimed: "My God! that settles it in my mind." Ten minutes later the sheriff arrested James Palmer, a former employe of the com-pany, and lodged him in jail on suspicion of being the murderer.

On Wednesday, Whitehouse, in company with Sheriff Coffin and Superintendent Palmer, searched Palmer's house for some tools. Palmer, it is said, swore to be revenged.

The Alleged Murderer of Snell. CHICAGO, May 28 .- A. J. Stone, the son-in-law of A. J. Snell, who is supposed to have been murdered by W. B. Tascott, stated yesterday that he did not believe the body of the unknown man taken from Lake Michigan, near Milwankee, was that of Tascott, and that he placed no faith in the letter found in a floating bottle in the lake near the same city. He said if the description of the body resembled Tascott at all the authorities at Milwaukee would have notified the authorities here, and they had not done so. He said every clew that gave any promise of leading to the capture of Tascott was being diligently followed up and a great deal of correspondence was received every day touching the ocation of the criminal. Mr. Stone also remarked that he did not believe Tascott had courage enough to kill himself, and furthermore, had not the "sand" to have committed a murder had it not been he was placed in close

CLEVELAND AND THURMAN

A Campaign Lie of Large Size Obtains Wide Circulation from the Capital.

Cleveland and His Friends Decide that Governor Gray's Know-Nothing Record Bars Him as a Candidate for Vice-President.

Secretary Whitney Says that Ex-Senator Thurman Will Make the Race, Provided He Is Given a Unanimous Nomination, but the Old Roman Declares He Ilas Not Made Any Such Agreement.

GRAY REJECTED.

Ex-Senator Thurman Will Accept a Unanimous Nomination for Vice-President.

pecial to tue Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, May 28 .- Governor Gray, of Indiana, is no longer regarded a vice-presidertial quantity. The name of ex-Senator Allen G. Thurman, of Ohio, has been substituted by the administration, and it is stated upon authority of a Cabinet officer that the "Old Roman" has consented to accept. Last week overtures of the most persuasive character were made to Mr. Thurman, by gentlemen directly connected with the administration, for him to permit the use of his name at the St. Louis convention. This morning Allen W. Thurman, the ex-Senator's son, arrived here from Columbus with the information, it is stated, that his father had consented to take the nomination if it was tendered him unanimously. This can be done, and will be done, it is stated by men closely connected with the administration, Mr. Cleveland having expressed a very earnest desire to have Mr. Thurman on the ticket with him. The name of Governor Gray was rejected by Mr. Cleveland and his immediate friends because the Indianian was once a prominent Know-nothing, and Was believed would loose pasty the State of New York. Then, there were very strong objections made to him by Democrats from his own State. A Democratic member of the House, who calls upon the President almost daily, said to the Journal correspondent to-night that two or three of the leading Democratic members of the delegation in Congress from Indiana have gone to Mr. Cleveland and asked him to exert his influence to keep Gray off the ticket. This direcied the President's attention to the necessity of investigating Mr. Gray's record, and the Rev. Dr. Fry was re-elected editor of the | Know-nothing feature of it led him to say at once that his name must not be on the ticket; that no man who had ever been a Know-nothing could carry New York, and the machinery was put to work to select another man. General Black, of Illinois, Commissioner of Pensions, seemed to have the inside track ten days ago, when Interstate commissioner Morrison made a protest, and then the President and Secretary Whitney and others said if Thurman could be induced to accept he would be the man; that Cleveland and Thurman would be invincible. Secretary Whitney undertook the task of securing assent from the aged Ohloan, and this afternoon Secretary Whitney announced that Mr. Thurman would accept. It is stated upon good authority to-night that President Cleveland has a letter from Mr. Thurman, in which he permits the use of his name at the St. Louis convention. This letter was shown at a conference to-day between Senator Gorman, Wm. H. Barnum and other prominent Democrats, who arranged to bring about the "Old Roman's" nomination.

How It was Received Here. That the Washington Democrats, with the assistance of the administration, have arranged for the defeat of Governor Gray, at St. Louis, acquired additional proof yesterday in authoritative information received by ex-Senator McDon-ald that Thurman had consented to accept the second place on the national ticket. When Gray's friends heard of it, for it came in such a manner as to cause them anxiety, they at once began to talk about the old age of the "Old Roman," saying that if it had not been for his years he would have been made a Cabinet officer. The movement in the interest of Thurman seems to have the indorsement of Senator Payne, whose faction in Ohio has been violently opposed to him. It was also stated in the McDonald telegram that Secretary Whitney is directing the movement and Democrats here who oppose Gray infer that Cleveland is, therefore, taking part in it. It is believed that all this means Thurman's nomination by acclamation. Ex-Senator McDofald thinks that if Payne and Whitney are for the old Roman the

Mr. Jones, of Arkansas, called attention to some of the remarks made last week by Senator Stewart on the veto question, particularly to those making charges against the Attorneygeneral in connection with land titles in California, and with the "raid on the Bell Telephone Company," and earnestly defended the Attorney-

Mr. Stewart defended his position in reference to the private land-claim suits in Californis, and sent to the Clerk's desk and had read a letter to the President from Governor Waterman, of California, bearing on that subject, and representing that the litigation to settie land titles in that State has been going on for nearly forty years. He declared that there was no outrage in the whole history of California equal to that of re-opening such litigation.

The Senate then went into executive session and remained with closed doors till 5 o'clock Then the doors were reopened, and the Senate proceeded to (still in executive session) vote on the following resolution, which was agreed to

Resolved. That the injunction of secrecy be removed from all the proceedings of the Senate in reference to the treaty with Great Britain now under

The Senate then adjourned. In the closed executive session, Senator Morgan resumed the floor and continued his speech of last Friday. Other Democratic Senators contributed to the proceedings, but the Republicans said nothing. Motions from the Demoeratic side to postpone the treaty until Decem-ber and to lay on the table the motion to sit with open doors were ruled out of order. At half-past 4 the motion made last week by Senator Sherman to proceed to consideration of the fisheries treaty was brought to a yea and nay vote and carried by 21 to 19. Senator Morgan then offered the resolution about removing the injunction of secresy, as given above, and it was adopted. The purpose of this was to permit the publication of Senator Morgan's remarks, which had already been delivered. The doors were then opened.

Proceedings of the House. WASHINGTON, May 28.-Under the call of States the following bills and resolutions were introduced and referred: By Mr. Gest, of Illinois, appropriating $275,-

By Mr. Townshend, of Illinois: Providing for an assistant Secretary of War.

By Mr. Plumb, of Illinois (by request): To provide for issuing bonds to refund the national debt.

The House then went into committee of the whole—Mr. Blount, of Georgia, in the chair—on the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill.

In connection with action on the salary of the First Auditor of the Treasury, Mr. Kerr, of Iowa, commented on civil-service reform as practiced by the Democratic party, and sent to the Clerk's desk and had read a circular letter to federal office-holders in Iowa written by the secretary of the Democratic State committee of Iowa, asking for voluntary contributions.

A sharp interchange on the merits of the civil-service law and the attitude of the two parties toward it then took place between Messra. Weaver, of Iowa; Steele, of Indiana; Cannon, of Illinois, and others.

On motion of Mr. Kerr, of Iowa, the salary of the assistant treasurer at New Orleans was fixed at $4,000, instead of $4,500, as proposed by the bill.

On motion of Mr. O'Neil, of Missouri, an amendment was adopted appropriating $5,000 to meet the expenses of the assay office at St.

After completing consideration of sixty of the 110 pages of the bill, the committee rose.

Mr. Townshend, of Illinois, from the committee on military affairs, reported the army appropriation bill, and it was referred to the committee of the whole. Adjourned.

MINOR MATTERS.

The Democrats Continue to Amend the Mills Bill to Suit Emergencies. WASHINGTON, May 28.-About one hundred Democratic members of the House met in caucus at the Capitol to-night, at 8 o'clock, and discussed proposed changes in the Mills tariff bill until near midnight. Quite a number of amendments were proposed, all of which led to spirited debate. As a result of the deliberation, it was agreed to take works of art, kaolin, pottery-clays and prunes and plums from the free list and restore them to existing rates of duty. The wool and woolen sections were not touched by the caucus to-night, and remain in the bill as they came from committee. After the caucus had been at work for an hour two a proposition was advanced a member of the ways and means committee to abandon all proposed amendments to the Mills bill and bring the measure, as it originally came from committee, before the House for its action, but this proposition met with such a storm of opposition that it was at once withdrawn. The duty on pottery and salt was left for consideration by another caucus, which will be held on Wednesday next.

Correcting a Record. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, May 28.-By direction of the Secretary of War, under the act approved June 3, 1884, and the act am endatory thereof, approved Feb. 3, 1887, and to complete the record, James H. Garten is mustered into service as captain, Company C, Ninty-first Indiana Infantry Volunteers, to take effect Sept. 29, 1864; his discharge as second-lieutenant, same regiment, to date Dec. 8, 1864, by Paragraph 81, Special Orders, No. 460, series of 1864, War Department, adjutant-general's office, is amended to read captain, and he is mustered for pay in said grade during the period embraced between the aforesaid dates.

The Army Appropriation Bill. Washington, May 28 .- The army appropriation bill, reported to the House to-day, appropriates $24,289,700, which is $564,981 more than the appropriation for the current fiscal year. The principal items of increase are as follows: $75,000 to $100,000 for the purchase of ordnance stores, and the same increase for infantry stores; $400,000 for dynamite guns, and $100,000 for experiments with Lieut. J. W. Graydon's dynamite shells and other high explosives.

Well, such is the fact. The matter has always been kept a secret, in the hope that the thief might be discovered; but he never has been, at least I never heard he was. I don't think that anybody in particular was ever suspected of being the thief. The supposition is that the robbery was perpetrated in the expectation of obtaining something among Mr. Blaine's private papers which might be used to his political injury if ever wanted. I never learned the character of the papers stolen. When the robbery was discovered, the floor of the library was found littered with letters and papers, which had evi-dently been carefully examined. A CHANGE FOR THE BETTER

Latest Reports Indicate a Favorable Turn in Gen. Sheridan's Illness.

However, There Is Faint Hope that He May at Least Partially Recover,

But His Physicians Consider that His Career Is Practically Ended, and that Its Termination Cannot Be Long Delayed.

THE SICK SOLDIER.

A Favorable Turn in Gen. Sheridan's Illness Revives the Hopes of His Friends. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

Washington, May 28 .- The latest reports from General Sheridan's sick bed indicate a decidedly favorable turn in his condition. At 9 welock this evening the physicians in attendance reported that the General was looking and feeling better than he had for forty-eight hours previously. All day yesterday, notwithstanding newspaper reports to the contrary. General Sheridan was delirious. He turned uneasily in his bed and muttered unintelligibly. The swelling in his limbs, indicating ordems, as the result of sluggishness of circulation, increased. Late in the night there was a decided turn for the worse, and for several hours each moment was expected to be his last. Early this morning the General's pulse became more normal, the swelling in his decreased, and when the consultation of the physicians was held it was decided that a turn for the better had taken place. During the day he has been conscious, with few exceptions; has recognized friends, and has had absolutely no return of the last sinking spell. The house has been besieged to-day with callers, and many pedestrians and carriages have turned into Rhode Island avenue, past the General's house. While there is no expectation that Gen. Sheridan will recover permanently from the attack from which he is now suffering, some hopes are held out to-night that he will rally sufficiently from the attack, under favorable conditions, to be once more about. "His career, however," said one of the physicians in attendance, "has ended, and whatever the present results may be, the end cannot be very long de-

To the Western Associated Press. WASHINGTON, May 28 .- The following bulletin was issued at 10 o'clock: "A consultation was held at 9 A. M. General Sheridan passed a bad night, having an irregular pulse, a labored respiration, and being de-lirious. Since daybreak, however, and espe-cially within the last hour, there has been slight but distinct improvement in all his symptoms. His pulse is 110, and steadier. The oedema of the legs has gradually subsided, and is now slight. He continues to take an ample supply of nourishment, which seems to be assimilated.

C. B. BYRNE. H. C. YAEROW." At 11:10 A. M. General Sheridan was sleeping quietly and restfully. At 9 o'clock this morning

Colonel Blunt said to an Associated Press reporter this morning that Mrs. Sheridan had expressed herself as deeply 'grateful for the sympathy and kindness that bad been extended, and for the many messages received from the Gen-

he recognized and spoke pleasantly to his body eral's friends. The General awoke at 11:15 and his mind was entirely clear. He recognized every one about him. Oxygen has been administered constantly since he awoke. It is said that his facial appearance is but slightly changed. The bulletin issued at 2:30 P. M. said: "General Sheridan has retained all the imrovement noted in this morning's bulletin, and n addition his mind has grown markedly

At 5 o'clock General Sheridan was resting quietly. Colonel Kellogg, one of the General's really better. He instantly recognizes any of his friends who enter his room, and often inquires after their health. "At no time," said Colonel Kellogg, "has the General given up

The following bulletin was prepared at 8-30 P. and issued at 9:30 P. M.: General Sheridan has passed a most comfortable day. He dozed at intervals, and about 5 P. M. had a quiet sleep of nearly an hour's duration, from which he awoke feeling refreshed and cheerful. He has slept occasionally since. His mind is perfectly clear. He is stronger. His pulse has gained in force and regularity. at no time has exceeded 110. The respirahows great improvement, and the aeration blood is better. The cedema of the legs entirely disappeared. He takes sufficient food, and his tongue, previously much coated, is now clear. His secretions are normal. He says he feels splendid. ROBERT M. O'REILLY.

W. MATTHEWS. C. BYRNE. H. C. YARROW. MIDNIGHT.-There is little to add to the 8:30 o'clock statement. General Sheridan's favorable condition continues. He sleeps easily and restfully, wakes occasionally and makes some rational remarks, and goes to sleep again.

BYRNE. WASHINGTON, May 29.-2:30 A. M.-General Sheridan has been sleeping quietly for about two hours. There is no change in his condition. Every one in the house has retired except Dr.

O'Reilly and two watchers down stairs. A Feeling of Relief.

WASHINGTON, May 28 .- There was a general feeling of relief in General Sheridan's household this morning when the physians issued their bulletin that there had been a slight but distinct improvement in all his symptoms. The night was an anxious one. The distinguished patient seemed to grow weaker and weaker and the chances of his recovery less and less as the hours dragged slowly along. Indeed, he was so low in the early hours of the morning that his faithful attendants well nigh abandoned hope. Even the members of his staff, who have been in constant attendance since his first attack, last Monday, and who have all along contended that the General would pull through, seemed despondent and discouraged, and answered inquiries as to the General's chances with a dubious shake of the head. The history of the case shows that the most dangerous time for the General is between the hours of 2 and 6 in the morning. and this morning was no exception to the rule. All the physicians and the nurse were with him during that period, and the discouraging news that came from the bedside from time to time filled the anxious watchers with grave fear. Mrs. Sheridan bore up bravely under the trying ordeal, and though unable to obey the doctor's advice, to take some sleep, showed rare confidence and composure. The children did not realize the gravity of the situation, and they slept calmly through the hours which some feared might be their father's last. They know that there is something wrong in the house, but so far have been kept in icnorance of the true state of the case. They wander about the house at will, but are not allowed to enter the sick chamber. They appear amine the case. The argument in the case will be heard July 13.

Sr. Paris. O., May 28.—E. V. Rhoades, cashier of the First National Bank, was arrested quietly and gave bond for his appearance before the United States commissioner, May 31. The charge is embessling, stealing and taking away funds of the bank.
